EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TRACK RESTRICTS STARTERS TO THE ORDINARY HORSES.

Cooney K. Takes the Leading Race-Bell-the-Cat a Surprise in the Steeplechase-Seven Races Daily After This Week.

New Orleans, La., January 23 .- Over a track which was in frightful condition, an ordinary los of racers furnished today's sport. Close finished were in order throughout except in the third race A steeplechase over the short course and two races for two-year-olds were the principal features

Favorites failed on five occasions. The only choice to win was Cooney K. His victory was a lucky one and he would have been beaten in another stride

The principal surprise of the afternoon occurred in the steeplechase when Bell-the-Cat, in a desper ate drive, beat Gold Circle by the narrowest kind of a margin. Barney Schreiber started his California crack, Dr. Logan, in the race, but after showing superior form both as a jumper and racer for the first turn of the course, he tired as if short and will no doubt reverse this running later Another upset to shock the talent came in the closing race when Redgauntlet, at a ridiculously false price, took the purse after a terrific stretch drive to beat Adesso, also at a long price. Debar which nearly all the form students pinned their faith, again disappointed them and, although run ning a good race, failed to finish better than third. Redgauntlet's owner neglected a good opportunity to even up some of his recent heavy losses lowing the horse to go to the post unbacked.

Cooney K. and Posing, the latter making her first start in a long time, fought out the finish in the fourth race and the favorite barely lasted long enough to get by the judges in front. Posing, but for suffering from much interference in the first quarter, would have won Brougham, running in much improved form with blinkers, was backed extensively by his connec-tions and spreadeagled his opponents in the third race, in which a good band of youngsters started, and verified his owners' statements that he is one of the best colts at the track. Hammock Boy gained second place from Servicence.

In the opener another band of two-year-olds made up the field and Tony W. scrambled home before Teddington, a first-time starter. A. Weber, owner of Tony W., also furnished the winner of the fifth race in Bridge Whist. The latter was much the best and had to be to win.

Jockeys Nicol and Lang were each suspended by the starter for six days for disobedience at the post in the third race.

Announcement was made today that beginning with Saturday seven races would be the daily offering at both tracks.

Bernard Corrigan, the well-known Kansas City railway magnate and brother of Edward Corrigan, was among today's visitors. He will remain several Joseph A. Murphy, who came here to testify in the Rabb trial, returned to St. Louis. He will likely be the presiding judge this spring and ummer at Toronto, Kenilworth, and, possibly, the Hamilton meetings.

Jockey J. W. Murphy has severed his connections with J. W. Burttschell and will return to his home

Captain J. H. Rees arrived today.

RACE TRACK TAX NOT TAINTED MONEY.

Concerning Governor Hughes' crusade against racing, the New York Sun pertinently enough says: "Persons who are trying to create the impression at Albany that the state agricultural societies have been cutting up gambling money in the shape of the state racing tax, possibly overlook the fact that not one dollar in revenue from the bookmakers is included in the amount collected from the Jockey Club tracks by the state. Two years ago all business relations with the betting ring were severed by the race track owners, so that since then the state tax has been levied on the gross gate receipts exclusively. As the racing authorities do not any way recognize betting, which is regarded by as a matter of personal business between so called layers and players, it is set forth by the friends of the sport that such a thing as 'gambling money' does not really exist, and that whatever legislation may be passed relative to bookmaking, operation of the tracks will not be stopped Racing men are of the opinion that no matter what might be resorted to to stop booking, it be a difficult task to convict any one of bookmaking if he simply made a personal wager friend or patron in which no money was passed at the track and no token was given by which such wager could be collected."

WELL-KNOWN TURF WRITER DEAD.

New York, January 23 .- C. C. Pettus, who was for a number of years employed in the stand at sev eral of the western tracks as a judge and in latte years an entertaining writer on subjects relating to turf, especially its early history, died recently at his home, 415 Madison avenue. He leaves a wife

Gives an English Newspaper Entertaining Statement -The Turf in General Also. An interview with James R. Keene from England is going some distance for home news, but appeared in the London Sportsman recently, sent on by its New York correspondent, is decidedly interesting and in part as follows: 'Attributing his winnings principally to Celin, the champion two-year-old by Commando, out o Pastorella, and to Ballot and Peter Pan, the three year-olds, I asked how these horses compared with others here, especially Salvidere, De Mund and Frank Gill (by Collar).

"Mr. Keene immediately replied: 'I really do not care to compare mine with any of them, but you know what Colin has done. Now, as to the three-year-olds and the talk of Frank Gill and Salvidere. I believe I am warranted in saving that no matter where you looked. Peter best three-year-old of the season. He was such a gigantic horse and so heavy that he required a tremendous amount of work and racing to get him into proper condition, so I have sent him out Major Daingerfield, and he will go to the stud. Ballot (by Voter, out of Cerito), however, will race next year, and then we will see more definitely what he is capable of. He is a really charming horse and, although he was beaten by Salvidere I think that after Peter Pau he was the best three rear-old we had. He had a little trouble in the throat early in the season and that affected him omewhat right along, but at a mile and a half I think he was unbeatable.

'As to Peter Pan, although the papers seen to have decided the question. I have not yet settled with Major Daingerfield how I will dispose of the stallion this year, but I think it is extremely probable that the horse will be put to Pastorella

"Mention of the close of the season gave me au portunity of asking how the American compared with the English turf at present.

'Well,' said Mr. Keene, after a minute's hesitation, 'I have some very strong opinions on that subject, but I do not know that I care to give them in detail now. I think, however, we are gradually improving, and we will continue to improve, but we want more votaries of the turf—we want them the same as in England. We want more gentlemen to become interested here and maintain the sport on a high level-gentlemen who will race for the sport and not for the mere money. Of course, it is very nice to win and to win money in stakes, but I would like to see more wealthy and independ ent gentlemen owning here than at present. not very many to depend upon and the Jockey Club has a good deal to contend with.

"There are the jockeys. I do not think it is a question of lightweights or continuous riding with them. They simply get into bad hands, they are flattered and petted and spoiled and just as soon as should become useful, they become worthless. We have trouble with them and with others, but, as I have remarked, I think we are improving.

"'I was, I may say, correctly quoted in The Sportsman after the Futurity, when I said that under similar circumstances in England my colt, Colin, would have been 10 to 1 on instead of 5 to 2, a price offered on account of the unfair tactics pursued here, especially by jockeys. Really, no price could have represented Colin-he was so immeasurably superior to the others. The question of jockeys is a serious one. As for my own I have engaged Notter for next season and up to the present I think he is all right and a good

'I would not say we do not compare favorably. but while we have many good owners, I would like to see, as I have said, more votaries-gentlemen would race for the love of the sport alone. In that direction, of course, England is ahead of

"Do you intend to race in England next season?" I asked.

"'Well, I don't know that yet,' he answered. Of course, I have always entered horses in the big races and keep a few in training there, but I cannot say how they will turn out. There is Colin, for instance. I never knew how he would turn out, and, of course, didn't enter him. Colin undoubtedly would have won the Derby-not the slightest doubt about it. As in everything else there is a lot of luck in it, though I suppose I And then he significantly added: 'Yes, I think Mr. Croker was lucky to win the -very lucky.

"Regarding training operations, Mr. Keene spok highly of Felix Leach, of Newmarket, and referred particularly to the ability of Sam Darling. who trained Disguise. As to his stable at Sheeps head Bay, he said he had a very promising lot o horses there in charge of James Rowe. The latter ow been training for him twelve years and he thought he was fortunate in having his services course, Ballot and Colin are the stars of the stable, but Mr. Keene, in kindly inviting me to visit the training quarters, gave me a tip which through The Sportsman, will settle a much-vexed question here. An exceptionally fast and finely built youngster at Sheepshead Bay 'spotted' by other trainers, and 'rail birds' and serious disputes have arisen as to whether he is a colt by Disguise—St. Mildred, or one by Voter— He is neither one nor the other. asked to look out especially for Celt, by Commando -Maid of Erin, by Amphion-Cerito. ster,' said the owner, 'will, I think, be a bit of

Weather Change Keeps Enthusiasts Away-Burns Handicap the Magnet of Departing Horsemen

Los Angeles, Cal., January 23.-An incessant rain accompanied by a cold northerly wind made climatic conditions unfavorable for race-goers today, and the attendance was confined to the regulars. The changed track conditions permitted some of the mud-running horses entered today to show their mettle.

A big delegation of horsemen here will leave tonight for Oakland to witness the running of the Burns Handicap at the Emeryville track Saturday.

The city ordinance which is to go into effect Saturday, is now said to also hit the daily papers, and they will not publish selections of probable winners in the future.

P. T. Chinn and his friends extensively backed Senator Beckham to win the fifth race, and his vic tory was the most notable incident of the afterno Captain Emerich and P. J. McKenna and wife ere among the arrivals today.

Hidden Hand, a Texas-bred filly in the stable of J. F. Newman, won the first race on the card after several futile attempts to win at this track. She was made the favorite today, and her backers were in suspense throughout the running, as Kerry found the sloppy track just to his liking and proceeded to set the pace, closely followed by the favorite. Kerry tired in the closing drive, allowing Hidden Hand to finish an easy winner. with a rush, obtained third place. Oriflamb, finishing

The change of track conditions probably caused the defeat of the favorite in the second race, as Coppe Princess did not seem to take kindly to it. Chilla proved the best in the going.

Marion Rose found the track suited to her and made the third race a runaway affair. Prolific was her nearest contender, but never was danger-Lee Harrison II. lost the place by a head, but was an easy third.

Lucky Lad set a fast pace in the fourth race, but failed to stay. Avontellus was badly outpaced in the early running, but outstayed Sainrida in a hard drive.

Aquiline was backed to win the fifth race in a manner to indicate that the race was already run and won, but finished beaten off. The eastern contingent, headed by owner Chinn, scored a coup with Senator Beckham, which won in a canter after running lapped on Booger Red, the pacemaker. Billy Bowlegs was an easy third.

JOE ULLMAN JOINS THE MAJORITY.

New York, January 23 .- Joseph Ullman, the wellown bookmaker, died yesterday afternoon at the Amityville Sanitarium, Long Island, of brain trouble. Ullman had been ill for nearly a year and his relatives placed him in the Long Island institution some time ago for treatment for his malady. Ullman went to California last winter for his health and it vas there that he broke down, but returned to New York in the early summer somewhat improved in health. Recently he began to sink rapidly and passed away yesterday while unconscious Ullman first acquired fame in the turf world when in 1886 at Lexington he bought a yearling for $265, which he named Raceland and won the next year the Washington Park, Great Eastern Handicap at neepshead Bay, Manufacturers' Stakes at St. Louis the Arlington Stakes and Capital Stakes at the old Ivy City track at Washington and three other races, winning a total in purses and stakes of $18,288, and then sold him to the elder August Belmont for $20,000. He was the originator of the "foreign book" on American race tracks. His "Big Store" at Saratoga and the metropolitan tracks was pat ronized by all of the big bettors.

His funeral will be held in the chapel of the Amityville cemetery at Jamaica tomorrow afternoon

MAY BE NO RACING AT WINDSOR.

Detroit, Mich., January 23.-President George M. Windsor track stated last night Hendrie of the that in all probability there would be no racing in Windsor this summer. This decision was reached on receipt of the news that the Niagara Jocker Club had decided to race for a period of thirty-six days at Fort Erie.

President Hendrie said: "Providing the report from Chicago that races will be Fort Erie track for a period of thirty-six days, be ginning July 27 to September 5, is true, it be out of the question to endeavor to hold the isual meeting at Windsor." Mr. Hendrie further stated that the Windson track had contemplated an eighteen-day meeting, beginning August 29, but thinks a conflict in date would not be beneficial to the local track. There is but one chance for the Windsor meeting.

the possibility of a law being passed making it impossible to carry on an extended meeting. On February 5 the legislature meets in Toronto and such a measure may be adopted.

HAMILTON JOCKEY CLUB BUYS TRACK.

Hamilton, Ont., January 23 .- It is reported that the Hamilton Jockey Club has purchased the track here from the former owners, the Central Fair Association, for $50,000, of which $10,000 has already been paid. The remainder is to be paid in aninstallments and in the meantime the Hamil ton Jockey Club is to pay a yearly rental of $2,000 until the whole of the purchase money has been paid.

Burns Handicap Field Reduced to Nineteen Good Eligibles-Jockey Moreland Under Suspension and Investigation.

Oakland, Cal., January 23 .- Jack Follansbee's old trainer, Harry M. Mason, got up from a sick bed and came to the track to saddle the Duke of Milan for the closing race at Oakland today, although suffering from an incipient attack of pneu-monia and in defiance of the doctor's orders. The oungster was in a playful mood and delayed his departure from the post long enough to take a nip at Barney Schreiber's filly, Minnie Bright, and got off badly, but got quickly down to the work before him, overhauled those in front of him onby one until nearing the finish he had only Minnie Bright to beat, passed the Schreiber filly meteoric end sprint and won a remarkable race, drawing out. The winner's flight of speed was phenomenal, and was greeted with tremendous ap-

A good card was partially spoiled by rain, which commenced falling just before the first race. Favorites and well backed horses, however, monopolized the card despite the very bad going.

Walter Miller secred two successes and kept up his wonderful winning average. The public had all the best of the argument with the layers. There was no stake feature programmed, but the card was excellent.

Today's rain disposed of any possibility for a good track on Saturday, therefore only tried mud runners will have any chance in the Burns Handi-cap. After yesterday's declarations the big race is left with nineteen eligibles as follows:

JAMAICA'S SPRING STAKES PROGRAM.

New York, January 23.—Secretary Walter C. Edwards of the Metropolitan Jockey Club, announces the estalishment of a new stake for the spring meeting at the Jamaica track. It is a handicap for three-year-olds and over at one mile and a sixteenth with $1,500 in added money. The clos ing day for stake entries to be run for at the spring meeting at Jamaica will be February 17.

The established races for mature horses will be and a sixteenth, $10,000 guaranteed; Montague, mile and a sixteenth, $2,000 added: Kings County, Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, $1,500 added; Paumonok Handicap, six furlongs, $1,500 added; Newtown, six furlongs, $1,000 added, and the Corong one mile and a sixteenth $1 000 added

The three-year-old specials will be the Williamsbridge Handicap, six furlongs, $1,500 added; Dunton Stakes, six furlongs, $1,500 added, and the Columbus Stakes, one mile and a sixteenth, $1,000

The only project the Metropolitan Jockey Club has deferred until the skies brighten a bit is the scheme to lengthen the track at Jamaica from one one mile and a furlong by moving Long Island railroad tracks at the upper end of he course to the left a sufficient distance to make adding a sixteenth of a mile to each stretch pos-The management realizes that the present cramped course does not meet the requirements of modern racing and that the track must be enlarged as soon as possible.

WASHINGTON JOCKEY CLUB DATES.

New York, January 23.—The dates for the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club at Benning will be announced by the stewards of the Jockey Club within a day or two. The management of the Benning track has been busy for some time pro paring the stake book for the meeting and it will e announced shortly. This puts to rest the recent rumors that there would not be a spring meeting held at Benning. The rumor was probably based upon the fact that dates were not made for Benning at the same time dates for the metropolitan tracks were decided upon. The "walk-around" tem of bookmaking, it is understood, will be used again this spring. The dates for the meeting at Pimlico will, it is said, be announced in the near

"Remembering that during his career Mr. Keene has owned such celebrities as Foxhall, Commando Domino, Voter, St. Cloud, Sysonby, in addition to those now in training, I ventured to put the time-honored question: 'Well, after all, which

DAVIS CASE TO BE DECIDED SOON.

Washington, D. C., January 23 .- The case William Davis, the bookmaker who was convicted in a test case for violating the District Code in which was taken to the Court of Appeals, will be heard early in February by agreement of counsel. It is understood to be the intention of District Attorney Baker, if this case is decided adversely to him, to secure the indictment of one of the per ambulating bookmakers at the fall meeting at Benning last November and secure a trial of the case before the opening of the spring meeting at that track. If he is entirely successful in this course he will probably take steps to stop betting at the race track during the coming meeting.

ENGLISH OROSS-COUNTRY JOCKEYS.

Steeplechasing and hurdle racing plays a much ore important part on the English turf than it does in this country, being carried on steadily from the close of flat racing at Manchester in November to the March following. The result is more horses in the illegitimate branch of the sport, and a period of active and continuous employment for riders. many of whom, professional and amateur, are ac complished horsemen. Their greater chance to make a respectable living is illustrated by the many mounts of the principal riders, the record for 1907

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is said one reason taking W. O. Parmer to Cuba for a few days tour, was to study the winter racing situation at Hayana.

It is reported that S. C. Hildreth has Veil back to her best eastern form and that the Disguise—Bi-turica filly will be a starter in the Burns Handicap.

The five-year-old bay horse Voorhees, by Solitaire II.—Carnation II., will not be sent to the post again, says his owner, but will be retired to the stud at Napa Stock Farm.

J. M. Johnson has not permitted jockey Vandusen who is under contract to the Johnson & Dodso stable, to ride since his bungling work with Sidney F. in the last race at Oakland last Friday.

Samuel Emery, who is spending the winter in New York, says the colt Red Robert, which he has liber-ally named for the two-year-old stakes, will be a better colt than Master Robert was last year.

James Hyde, Joseph Vendig, George Considine, Ed Pipton and a number of other New Yorkers will go to Florida within the next few days on a fishing trip and incidentally to take in the race meeting at Tampa. William Oliver has sold to J. S. Tyree, Washingn, a highly tried two-year-old filly by Dublin, for $2.000. She is now at the Oliver winter quarters at Lakewood, N. J., but will be shipped shortly to Benning, where she will be trained by William Shields.

A carload of horses which have been turned out at Boise, Idaho, since the running meeting there last fall, following the Spokane meeting, have been shipped to Oakland and are now in training at the Tan foran track. Ethel Day, Piquet and Aaron J. wer the best horses in the shipment.

Time, 254, 53, 1:21, 1:504, 2:114.

Winner—B. c, by Sir Walter—Orangeade (trained by T. P. Hayes).

Went to post at 4:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Redgauntlet, running to his best form, moved up gradually and, standing a hard drive in the stretch, curstayed Adesso through the last seventy yards. Adesso was prominent all the way and stayed well in the stretch drive, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Debar again moved away from the post slowly and showed a high flight of speed in gaining the lead after going three-quarters, but tired badly and brove out in the last furlong. Katle Powers closed a big gap, and was favored by the stiff going. Granada tired after setting the pace for three-quarters. Grenade and Warner Griswell were unsuited by Scratched—72804 Dr. McCluer, 111; 72803 Miss Mazzoni, 85.
